SCORES OF PEOPLE KILLED IN WRECK

Three Electric Cars Plunge From Bridge Into River.

100 PERSONS WERE ON THE CARS

Every Person in First Two Cars Were Drowned—Forward Coach Broke Through Guard Rail—Thousands of People Visit Wreck Scene.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 30.—At 11 o'clock Monday 51 bodies had been recovered from the wreck on the electric line of the West Jersey and Seashore railroad, which dashed through the drawbridge at Thoroughfare Sunday and one car had been recovered. How many remain in the other car is not known.

It is believed that possibly not all of those drowned may ever be recovered.

Atlantic City, N. J. Oct. 30.—As the details of Sunday's terrible wreck on the electric line of the West Jersey and Seashore road developed during the night, the disaster became more appalling. The total number of persons whose lives were snuffed out almost instantly, is probably sixty-six, with nearly a score injured, several of whom, it is thought, will die.

Forty-eight bodies already have been brought to the surface. There were ninety-one persons on the train, fifteen passes and seventy-six fares. Twenty-five of this number have been accounted for, which, with the bodies recovered, bring the total up to 73. This leaves 18 persons not accounted for, and who are supposed to have been drowned. It is possible that some of these may never be found. At police headquarters Monday morning it was stated that the effects found on bodies were not sufficient to permit of identification of more than six and that identification will have to be made by personal inspection. All of the bodies are being embalmed.

The early morning trains brought many persons from Philadelphia and other points, who were anxious to learn if a dear one had been swept to death by the awful disaster.

The wreck occurred at the drawbridge which spans the thoroughfare, a small waterway about 1 mile outside of this city, just on the eastern edge of the meadows and was directly due to the draw failing to work properly. The fishing schooner Sinbad which was recently wrecked off Winter Quarter Shoals light, a short distance from the Delaware breakwater, had just passed through the draw bridge. As the schooner was entering the draw, the electric train hove in sight and started across the meadow from the direction of Pleasantville. Before the draw had swung into position the three cars, which were running at a high rate of speed, dashed onto the trestle. With a lurch the forward car left the rails and dashed into the guard rail, the other two cars following. At the point where the cars jumped the track the top of the trestle is nearly 20 feet high. The first two cars were instantly submerged, but the third car of the train caught on an abuttment and remained suspended. It was this car from which nearly all of the injured escaped.

The news of the disaster was quickly telegraphed to this city and in less than an hour the work of rescue had begun.

At the time of the accident the tide, which rises about 10 feet, was running in and the work of the divers was necessarily slow. It was not until several hours later that the divers were able to make any progress, and then the awfulness of the tragedy became more apparent. When the two cars struck the bottom of the waterway, they stood almost on end, and the first man to descend reported that the victims were packed in the lower ends of the submerged cars so tightly that it was difficult to move them.

One by one the bodies were brought up, carried to a waiting train and laid side by side, later to be borne to this city and placed in the Empire theater.

Thousands of persons quickly gathered at the scene of the disaster and a score of boats soon surrounded the spot where the cars disappeared, but they were unable to render any aid.

At the morgue the scenes were pathetic. Persons who had friends on the ill-fated cars, crowded about the door and with difficulty were restrained from forcing their way into the building. One of the most heart-rending incidents was furnished by Frederick Reneckert, who lost his entire family, a wife and two children. Benckert was not informed of the accident until too late to catch a train, and he hurried here in an auto. When he saw the bodies of his wife and two little boys lying side by side on the floor, Benckert collapsed and had to be carried from the building.

Walter Scott, motorman, was killed because of his anxiety to spend a part of the day with his wife here. It was Scott's custom to run only as far as Millville, but he had swapped runs with another motorman and his death was the result.

Prosecutor Albertson, Coroner Gaskill, Captain Woodruff and Chief of Police Maxwell, superintended the removal of the bodies from the scene of the disaster. As each body was brought up to the surface it was searched and the effects taken in charge by Captain Woodruff. The valuables were placed in packages and numbered and a number corresponding was placed on the body.

The drivers were completely exhausted by their continued efforts and were compelled to suspend operations a short time before daybreak. Their work was particularly arduous because the wrecking crews, which had been summoned to the scene of the accident, were unable to raise the submerged cars.

An attempt was made to cut the first and second cars asunder and lift a single car out of the water, but the cables broke the first attempt and at the second the already twised car buckled. The attempts to lift the coaches were temporarily abandoned and all efforts were directed toward getting the bodies of the victims out of the wreckage. When it is certain no more bodies are in the tangled and twisted coaches, they will be broken up and pulled ashore.

General Manager W. W. Atterbury, of the Pensylvania, Railroad company, which company owns the line on which the accident occurred, is here, but thus far has declined to make a statement wth reference to the wreck. He intimated that a statement might be looked for later.

Believed To Be Dead.

Philadelphia, Oct. 30.—Miss Martha Hirsch, of this city and Arnold A. Tedesco, a New York traveling man, a friend of the Hirsch family, are believed to be among the dead. Together the couple started for Atlantic City Sunday afternoon and they did not return last evening as planned, nor has anything been heard from them since. P. Angruso, a member of the Royal Artillery band, who is reported among the dead, is safe in this city. He did not accompany the musicians Sunday, but loaned his coat to a member who was without a uniform. The latter was drowned and was identified as Angruso, his name being in the coat.

RIVAL GANGS FIGHT BATTLE FOR RAILWAYS

Railway Employees Clash Near Louisville.

ELECTRICITY USED ON ONE GANG

Men Seeking to Tear Up Track Were Knocked Out by Electricity—Four Hundred Men in a Hot Fight Near Louisville, Ky.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 30.—A pitched battle, in which electricity, picks, shovels and fists were used as weapons and in which 400 men participated was fought by rival track-laying gangs of the Louisville and Nashville railroad and the Louisville and Eastern Electric railway, Sunday. About two-score of the combatants were severely shocked or battered up, but none was seriously wounded.

The fight took place just east of Beards, a station 20 miles east of Louisville, where a gang of 100 Louisville and Eastern men attempted to lay their track across the Louisville and Nashville line. They had only partially finished their work when 300 Louisville and Nashville men appeared and started tearing the rails up.

A general battle followed immediately, during which the Louisville and Eastern men resorted to the novel experiment of charging the rails they had just laid with electricity from a trolley wire. When the Louisville and Nashville men applied their crowbars to the charged rails a score of them were knocked stiff. All, however, soon recovered.

County officials of Oldham county put an end to the fight and arrested two dozen of the leaders on each side. An armed truce prevails and it is expected that the right of way question will be taken into the courts.

Asleep by Dead Woman.

New York, Oct. 30.—Clinton C. Clark, 21 years of age, a sailor on the United States battleship Indiana, was arrested when he was found asleep on the grass in Riverside park and near by the lifeless form of an unidentified woman. A corner's physician who performed an autopsy on the woman's body said that in his opinion she had been murdered. Five of the ribs had been broken and there were bruises on the shoulder. Clark was held as a suspicious person. He told the police that he had been drinking and could not remember having been in the company of the woman. Clark enlisted in the navy at his home in Columbus, O., two years ago.

The election law now before the commission provides for the choosing of an assembly the first of the year.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 30.—William O. Robson, supreme secretary of the Royal Arcanum, died of pneumonia Sunday, aged 73 years. He was elected supreme secretary in 1877 and has held the office ever since.

NOTED SAFE BLOWER LOCATED

Charleston, S. C., Oct. 29.—In local federal court circles, interest centers in the reports from New York that the notorious Gus DeFord, who is wanted for trial for safe blowing and robbery of many postoffices and banks in South Carolina, has been located in that city.

DeFord was one of the leaders of the several gangs of yeggmen who began to operate in South Carolina at the time of the Charleston exposition and continued to blow safes until a couple of years ago, when Postoffice Inspector Gregory and other officials of the government succeeded in rounding up the last of the yeggmen.

There are 19 of the gang now doing time in the federal prison at Atlanta, the greater portion of whom were tried at the Charleston sessions of the federal courts. DeFord has been much hunted. He was arrested for safe blowing in New York a little over a year ago, but the authorities did not have a good case against him and decided to turn him over to the federal court authorities in South Carolina. While in charge of a New York marshal enroute to Charleston, he jumped from the window of a car at Cades, and made his escape.

Refused to Marry; Fatally Shot.

New York, Oct. 29.—Laura Osten, of East Orange, N. J., 23 years of age, was shot and it is believed mortally wounded while riding in a cab with Louis R. Brown on Broadway. Both are members of prominent families. Brown, who is 21 years old, and also a resident of East Orange, was arrested. According to the police, Brown attempted to kill himself, but was prevented by an officer. Brown is alleged to have said that the two had quarreled over the woman's repeated refusals to marry him. Miss Costen met Brown by appointment, and they dined. Later Brown summoned a cab and drove up Broadway. The cab driver, who said he had heard the couple quarreling, was attracted by a muffled sound, and climbing down, opened the door. As he did so the woman fell to the street unconscious.

Smith Wanted Pitcher Bayne.

Atlanta, Oct. 29.—Brad Alva Bayne, the one-time Atlanta player who committed suicide at Fort Valley Saturday, lived until this week, he would have been drafted by Billy Smith for the 1907 Firecracker team. Bayne passed through Atlanta last week on his way to Macon, and called to see the local manager, who was not in his office at the time, but Manager Smith was then trying to arrange a deal to bring him to this city, first by a sale and then afterwards deciding to draft him, and the draft would have gone through this week. Bayne was in Atlanta last summer, and married an Atlanta girl here. Billy Smith states that he would go to Macon to attend the funeral should the services be held there.

Will Pay Losses.

Berlin, Oct. 29.—Some of the German fire insurance companies which have not paid the losses which they sustained as a result of the San Francisco earthquake, have now determined to do so. The Berlin Fire Insurance company, at a general meeting of the shareholders, has decided to increase its capital by $625,000 and pay its losses, and the Prussian National Fire Insurance company has voted $625,000 to pay its San Francisco losses.

May Lynch Negro.

Memphis, Oct. 29.—A special from Ripley, Tenn., says that late Sunday night four officers raided a crap game near Hills Point. When the officers entered the building where the game was going on, George Estes, a negro, drew a revolver and shot and killed Officer Henry Sasseley and probably fatally wounded Officer John Bowers. The negro was captured. It is reported that a mob has quietly formed and an effort will be made to lynch the negro.

CAPT. WILLIAMS PROMOTED

One of the Best and Most Competent Conductors on the Jacksonville-St. Petersburg Run Wins a Deserved Honor.

There has been some important promotions in the Atlantic Coast Line ranks, in which some of the Gainesville boys have been materially benefited. Among the greatest benefactors in this line is M. H. McClamroch, chief dispatcher, who has been promoted to be trainmaster of the Jacksonville and Southwestern division, with E. T. Somerset, dispatcher, to succeed him as chief dispatcher.

Conductor E. W. Williams, for some time conductor on the Sanford and St. Petersburg division of the Atlantic Coast Line, has been promoted to trainmaster on the Charlotte Harbor division.

Conductor Williams was a popular man, and while the traveling public will regret to lose him, they will nevertheless extend their congratulations.

MR. PERRYMAN'S HARD LUCK.

Had a Fall in Which Three Ribs Were Broken and Other Injuries Received.

W. R. Perryman of Meredith was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. Perryman has recently passed through a great ordeal, having two of his ribs fractured and another broken in endeavoring to mount a moving locomotive a few days ago. His neck and shoulders were badly wrenched, and he was laid up for several days, but is all right again, having been enabled to make the trip to Gainesville alone.

Mr. Perryman is a track foreman of the tramway of Phillips & McEachern, Meredith, and had been out looking for the interests of the firm. He learned that his baby was ill, and naturally was desirous of returning home. When the engine passed the point where he was waiting he made a jump which caused the trouble, as the force threw him back with such force that it caused the trouble mentioned.

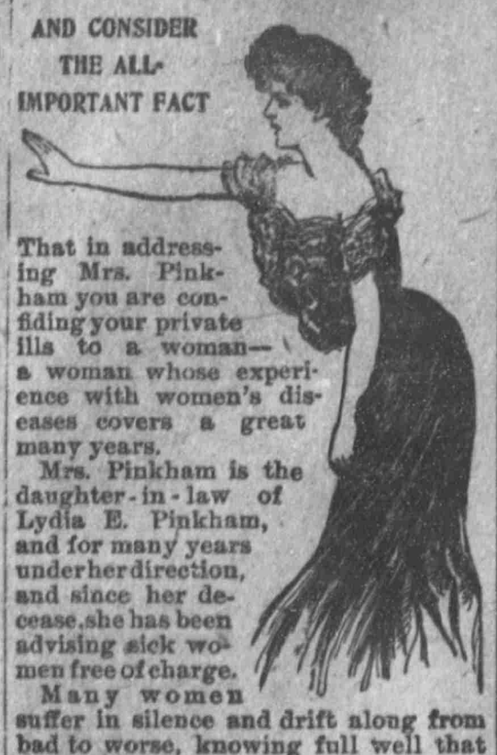
GAINESVILLE FURNITURE COMPANY.

STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT



That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.

Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for many years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me."

A BIG RALLY DAY.

Enormous Sum of $145 Was Subscribed by Small Church.

Editor Sun: Please allow me space in your valuable columns to express some of the efficient work done by Rev. J. M. Trammell, pastor of M. E. Church, and his committees and energetic people here. The Reverend White delivering a discourse on giving to the Lord swayed so much influence over the minds of his hearers that they were so enthused they soon swelled the collection th $145.00.

According to public sentiment and report of committee, this breaks the record of any previous year for Rally Day. I, as an eye witness to the fact, have never seen any more enthusiasm shown on any occasion than was shown at that rally. Surely the people of Nebo, with the efficient pastor at its head, are among the most energetic and enterprising people in Alachua county.

Remember, 'Tis Hallowe'en.

If, when you get up the morning of November 1st, and find—(oh, it will be fine!)—

The house-cat swung up to the bannister, and the door-mat hung out on the clothes line, and the gate bottom-side-up, and the stone dog top-side-down and turned 'round, and the buggy wheels off and lying around on the ground, and the cross bars of the telephone poles ornamented with Japanese lanterns and Jack-o'lantern gourds, and the kitchen door tacked up with scantlings and old boards—and that you have not yet certain other belongings seen—then remember—prod yourself and remember—'tis Hallowe'en.

ALBERT ANSON GRAHAM.

TRIBUTE TO MR. ENGLISH

One of Alachua County's Best Citizens Who Passed Away Oct. 12.

Mr. D. T. English, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of the Tacoma vicinity, died at his home on October 12th.

For several months Mr. English's kidneys had been affected in a way that caused frequent passages of blood. Several times his urine was examined by Dr. Montgomery, Sr., and Dr. Montgomery, Jr., but nothing showing the cause of the hemorrhage could be found.

His condition would yield to treatment for a short time, then worse conditions would manifest themselves.

In May Mr. English went to Georgia, where he remained several weeks, and improved in general health, but it was of slight duration. One week before his death he was taken with an intense bilious fever, during which attack, in addition to Dr. Montgomery Sr., he was seen by Dr. Price and Dr. McKinstry, Sr., of Gainesville. His fever seemed to have been controlled and his general condition much improved until twenty-four hours before his death. His heart showed signs of failure which no remedy seemed able to counteract. From the beginning of his sickness he seemed to be impressed with the belief that he would never recover.

Deceased was a man of noble example in every particular. Hard working, honest and moral, unusual in his majestic appearance, no one could help being impressed with his splendid personage when in his presence. Tacoma has lost a worthy, noble citizen.

An excellent family consisting of a wife, four sons, and seven daughters, still survive him.

To live, to labor and to die is the common lot of us all—tears nor sorrows cannot benefit the dead, but while we have opportunity we ought to be good to one-another.

AN UNLUCKY SHIP.

She Achieved the Grandest Exploit In Naval History.

The Bonhomme Richard was an unlucky ship. Paul Jones himself on taking command of her at Lorient, France, wrote a most doleful letter about her to one of his aristocratic patronesses in Paris. She was "a wornout old Indiaman," and "her forecastle is a babel." "Fourteen different languages are spoken in my forecastle," said Jones, dismayed at the appearance of his motley crew.

Two days out at sea the Bonhomme Richard was fouled by her consort, the Alliance, and had her jib boom and foretopmast carried away. Jones then put back to Lorient, perfectly convinced of the unluckiness of his ship. But through that accident he found 114 American seamen who had just been released from English prisons by exchange. Among them was Richard Dale, whom Jones at once appointed first lieutenant. These all volunteered into the Richard, Jones promptly discharging enough of his polyglots to make way for them. Prior to that he had only about forty Americans. This addition made 154 fighting Yankee seamen, and they were the men who made the Serapis sick a few weeks later off the east coast of England.

Thus it happened that the grandest exploit in naval history was achieved by an unlucky ship, and she obtained the means of achieving it through a distressing accident.

BAD SLEEPING HABITS.

Snoring, Grinding the Teeth and Nasal Whistling.

Man is the victim of bad habits in his sleep as well as in his waking hours. So distressing are some of these bad habits of sleep that they oblige wife and husband to occupy separate rooms, even at times causing divorce.

Snoring is of course the commonest if not the worst of sleep's bad habits. Snoring may be remedied. There are a dozen patented devices that, holding the mouth shut tight, prevent the snore.

Grinding the teeth is a disagreeable habit of sleep. It is impossible to sleep in the same room with any one who emits at irregular intervals this hideous sound. The trick is said to be incurable, but a rubber cap worn on the teeth renders the grinding almost noiseless.

Nervous persons sometimes leap in their sleep a foot or more in the air, shaking the bed and the whole room. The man who gives eight or nine of these leaps in the course of the night soon becomes an intolerable bedfellow. Nerve tonics and exercise should be prescribed for him.

Nasal whistling is a habit less easy to cure than snoring. The sleeper keeps his mouth closed, but breathes with a distressing sound through his nose. The sound resembles a low whistle and, heard in the small hours, is guaranteed to madden.

Throat Coughs

Ask your doctor about these throat coughs. He will tell you how deceptive they are. A tickling in the throat often means serious trouble ahead. Better explain your case carefully to your doctor, and ask him about your taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Then do as he says. Get the best medicine, always.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our preparations. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

THE LIBERTY CAP.

Its Significance Dates Away Back to Early Greek Times.

From very early times one of the distinguishing marks of a slave, both in Greece and oriental countries generally, was the lack of any covering for the head. Accordingly the cap came to be considered the insignia of liberty, and when slaves were given their freedom they were presented with a cap as an emblem of it. In Sparta the helots wore a cap of dogskin, and this was reckoned a badge of servitude, but upon gaining their freedom this was replaced by a cap of a different material, of another shape and ornamented with flowers. A similar custom was observed in Rome, where the presentation of the pileus, or cap, was always a part of the ceremony of manumitting a slave; hence arose the proverb, "Servos ad pileum vocare." Also on medals the cap is the symbol of liberty and is usually represented as being held in the right hand by the point. When a cap was exposed to the people's view on the top of a spear, as in the case of the conspiracy against Caesar, it was intended as a public invitation to them to embrace the liberty that was offered them. The Goddess of Liberty on Mount Aventime was represented as holding a cap in her hand as a symbol of freedom. The Jacobins wore a red cap during the French revolution, and in England a blue cap with a white border is used as a symbol of liberty. The custom, which prevails among university students of wearing a cap is said to have had its origin in a wish to signify that the wearers had acquired full liberty and were no longer subject to the rod of their superiors.

RESTAURANTS.

The First of Them Was Established In Paris In 1765.

For a long time inns and eating houses in France were only intended for the benefit of traveling people, for the people took their meals at home and restaurants were unknown. The first enterprise of the kind was founded in Paris in 1765. A citizen by the name of Boulanger opened in the Rue des Poulies an eating house where soup, meat, fowl and eggs were served. A chronicler relates that meals were served there on small, round marble tables and everything was scrupulously clean.

Over the entry to this first eating house the proprietor had hung a sign, upon which were the Latin words, "Venite ad me omnes quae stomacho laboratis, et ego restaurabo vos" (Come unto me all ye whose stomachs need attention, and I will restore them). This is a parody on the well known Biblical quotation, "Come unto me all ye who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest," only in place of labor and heavy laden he said, "whose stomachs need attention." The word "restaurabo," from the Latin "restaurare" (restore or refresh), was the main characteristic of the new establishment and gave it its name. Boulanger amassed a large fortune, for his enterprise proved eminently successful, but he was soon imitated, some of his imitators becoming more famous than he.

A Child Wonder.

The French Academy of Sciences in 1729 examined the case of a French lad only seven years old who, in all respects save that of intelligence, was the equal of a man of twenty. His remarkable physical development began when he was two years old. At four he could do the farm work of a boy of fifteen or sixteen, and at seven he was a fully grown man. Although his physique was thus remarkably developed, his intelligence was no greater than that of children of the same age. He died before he was twenty. As is usual in such cases of premature development, his strength faded away, and he became prematurely old before other men would attain maturity.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit. Mich.

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS

The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it "is, in fact, the popular Unabridged thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation."

We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of positive philological knowledge than any generation that the world has ever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition; and that in the future as in the past it will be the source of constant reference.

THE JAPANESE FLARE-UP.

It would be very remarkable if after all the light that has been made of it we were really confronted with the Japanese problem at this early day. None of the Departments in Washington are willing to admit they take the situation seriously, but there is unquestionably a cloud on the horizon that may develop into a storm. For some time past the consuls of the United States have been supplying the Department of Commerce and Labor with information as to Japanese commercial progress and her political course in Manchuria and Corea, in virtue of which the Japs are quietly shutting out the rest of the world. Some of these political suggestions, inadvertently or otherwise, got into print, and there were more important documents which did not get into print, but showed conclusively that there was a strong anti-American sentiment in the island kingdom

The recent descent of the Japanese seal poachers on the Island of St. Paul was really nothing that could be legitimately tortured into an international incident. The poachers were caught with the goods. And that some of them were killed in the fight was regretable, of course, but only what they could expect under the circumstances. They were tried in the American court at Sitka and nothing more was thought of it in this country, but it seems that in Japan poachers were held up as martyrs and a great deal was made among the common people over the lack of backbone in the Japanese government when it failed to follow up the case and demand reparation.

Coming on top of this there was the speech of Mr. Rockefeller, charging the Japanese with commercial treachery, and the utterances of Congressman Kahn, all of which went to add fuel to the flame of public opinion in Japan. The exclusion of Japanese children from the public schools in San Francisco was another cause of offense, and it seems that the Japanese public now is in a frame of mind to magnify every incident that occurs into American hostility that places both the Japanese citizen and the Chinese coolie on the same plane. The public over here may not take the situation seriously, but if the Japanese people are inflamed it is just the same to them whether what they consider slights on our part are intentional or not. It would take very little in the present strained state of Japanese feeling to arouse the common people of the island to the point of throwing stones and making themselves otherwise unpleasant to Americans. Such an outbreak could not be passed by with indifference by this government, and it is questionable if the Japanese government feels itself strong enough just now to disregard the clamor of its own people. So there is every possibility of a nasty flare-up that might easily land this government in serious hot water with a power that already considers itself one of the first magnitude and that has already proved its ability to put up a stiff fight if occasion demands.

The Democrats are in a big majority in this country, but the trouble always is in getting them to the voting booth. The Republicans admit that if an old-time full Democratic vote is cast all over the country this year the Democrats will control the next House. Now is the time for every man to do his part.

It is reported, curiously enough, that Mr. Thos. W. Lawson, Boston's foremost author, is about to write fiction. Has he ever written anything else?

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

In 1881 the railroads were killing folks and ducking damage suits, and calmly and unrighteously acquiring Legislatures, sending treasonable persons to Congress, and otherwise cutting high jinks at the expense of the people. Alas! how little the world has changed! We think our problems are very new and that all our grievances are young, and yet twenty-five years ago Judge descanted fiercely upon absconding cashiers and aged and respectable embezzlers who "scooped in the whole pot" and ran a conundrum which read, "Do bank examiners examine?"

Milk was watered in 1881, and foods were adulterated, and the cry for reform was everywhere heard. Tweed was a recent memory—a political nightmare. The Star-route scandal was still fresh, and monopoly and the octopus were abroad in the land. The press of the metropolis was monopoly-owned, it was charged, and Judge himself was excoriating the "sensational slush" in the newspapers. Rich women were eloping with their coachmen, and the headline artist was doing his daily "stunts."

And they were hounding millionaires in those days! Oh, the world is slow in mending, my masters. Gould was the Rockefeller of the day, the octopus personified. And Judge takes' pleasure in the fact that then, as now, he was ridiculing the unreasonable and hysterical abuse of the men of fortune. The money-bags of Wall Street were in the ring in '81, and the rich American girl was marrying the detested and titled, but impecunious foreigner.

No, there is nothing old and there is nothing new under the sun. In an editorial of December 10, 1881, Judge advocated the "square deal."—Judge.

TRAIN LEAVES TRACK.

Engine and Five Cars Jump—Passengers Shaken, But Not Hurt.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 30.—An eastbound passenger train on the Southern railway, leaving Knoxville at 2 o'clock Sunday morning, was partially derailed at Caswell, 5 miles east of Knoxville. The engine and five of the nine cars of the train left the rails at a switch, and it seems miraculous that no one was killed and only one man slightly hurt.

The engine ran a distance of 200 yards after leaving the rails. Four cars were placed clear of the right of way and only one blocked either track. Passengers were badly shaken up, but not a single one hurt. Traffic was blocked for only a short time. The engineer claims that an obstruction in the frog of the switch caused the derailment. Two eye-witnesses say that it was due to the high speed at which the train struck the switch.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to, I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month, as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better, and continued to improve until I was entirely well." Cotton Goes Up In Smoke.

Eutaw, Ala., Oct. 30.—A disatrous fire ocurred here which swept away the eastern half of the Planters' Warehouse and Commission Company's warehouse, destroying property estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000. The warehouse contained from 2,000 to 3,000 bales of cotton. About 250 bales were stored in the western side and by heroic effort was saved. About 500 bales on the platform adjoining the warehouse were saved by citizens assisted by negroes returning from church. Possibly only 500 bales are insured. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is thought to have been started by a spark from a passing locomotive.

Several convention matters were disposed of. The speakers at the general meeting included Mrs. Lucy Thurman, of Michigan, whose topic was "Work Among the Negroes."

Atlanta Man Ends His Life.

Gulfport, Miss., Oct. 30.—The body of a man apparently 35 years of age, was found on the beach near the Beach hotel, about noon Sunday. The body was well dressed and a watch and purse undisturbed. There were no means of identification except the name "J. H. Connelly, Atlanta, Ga., on the coat lapel. The verdict of the coroner's jury was suicide by a pistol. Police Chief Childress wired the Atlanta chief of the finding of the body. The body was immediately interred.

There's grave danger from the plague of coughs and colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Geo. Walls of Forest City, Me., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them. Public Is Warned.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 30.—On the eve of the anniversary of the publication of the imperial manifesto giving a constitution to Russia, Oct. 30, the prefect of police has caused the city to be placarded with proclamations recalling the late General Trepoff's famouse phrase, "Do not spare bullets," warning the public that in case of disorders, demonstrations or even the assembling of crowds, armed force will be used with all the vigor permissible under the rules "extraordinary security."

New York, Oct. 30.—In a fit of despondency with her husband's love letters torn to bits and scattered around her, Hazel Cooper, a chorus girl in the "The Earl and the Girl" company, drank carbolic acid in her apartments in the hotel Hamilton in West Forty-fifth street and died at a hospital Monday. The girl is said to have been the wife of Ed Walsh, a jockey. She was about 20 years of age.

The Pandects of Justinian.

The pandects of Justinian, the most complete body of Roman laws ever collected, were supposed to be lost, but in 1137, when Amalfi was taken and plundered by the Pisans, a private soldier found a copy, which he sold to an officer for a few pence. The value of the discovery was soon apparent, and the precious volume was taken to Pisa and stored in the city library. When Pisa was stormed by the Florentines in 1415 the precious volume was captured and taken to Florence, where it was placed in the library of the Medici.

Don't Be Imposed Upon.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Needles.

Needles are all made by machinery. The piece of mechanism by which the needle is manufactured takes the rough steel wire, cuts it into proper lengths, files the point, flattens the head, pierces the eye, then sharpens the tiny instrument and gives it that polish familiar to the purchaser. There is also a machine by which needles are counted and placed in the papers in which they are sold, these being afterward folded by the same contrivance.

Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

TIMBER PRESERVATION.

The Most Perfect Method Is Also the Most Expensive.

Telephone poles nearly always decay at or just below the ground line. The upper portion of the pole, permanently in the air, rapidly drying after rain, is practically always dry and is rarely found decayed. The butt of the pole, deeply buried in the ground, is in a permanently damp condition, but oxygen being excluded it is seldom badly affected. Close to the ground line the soil retains the moisture and keeps the wood constantly damp where it is exposed to the air and to the heat of the sun, which is just what its little vegetable enemies like, but if the albumen in the wood can be rendered unfit for food the wood tissues offer practically no support to fungi. Timber preservation amounts, then, to poisoning the food supply of the destructive agencies.

Preservation of timber is attempted in three ways—by seasoning, either natural or artificial; by outward mechanical means, such as charring in fire or the applications of antiseptics on the surface of the stick, and by impregnating the wood with antiseptics. Of these the last is by far the most important. The most perfect method—which is also the most expensive—is the injection of dead oil of coal tar into the whole fiber of the pole.—Hartford Times.

TRAIN LEAVES TRACK.

Engine and Five Cars Jump—Passengers Shaken, But Not Hurt.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 30.—An eastbound passenger train on the Southern railway, leaving Knoxville at 2 o'clock Sunday morning, was partially derailed at Caswell, 5 miles east of Knoxville. The engine and five of the nine cars of the train left the rails at a switch, and it seems miraculous that no one was killed and only one man slightly hurt.

The engine ran a distance of 200 yards after leaving the rails. Four cars were placed clear of the right of way and only one blocked either track. Passengers were badly shaken up, but not a single one hurt. Traffic was blocked for only a short time. The engineer claims that an obstruction in the frog of the switch caused the derailment. Two eyewitnesses say that it was due to the high speed at which the train struck the switch.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to, I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month, as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better, and continued to improve until I was entirely well." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Cotton Goes Up In Smoke.

Eutaw, Ala., Oct. 30.—A disatrous fire ocurred here which swept away the eastern half of the Planters' Warehouse and Commission Company's warehouse, destroying property estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000. The warehouse contained from 2,000 to 3,000 bales of cotton. About 250 bales were stored in the western side and by heroic effort was saved. About 500 bales on the platform adjoining the warehouse were saved by citizens assisted by negroes returning from church. Possibly only 500 bales are insured. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is thought to have been started by a spark from a passing locomotive.

Blood Poisoning

results from chronic constipation, which is quickly cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills. They remove all poisonous germs from the system and infuse new life and vigor; cure sour stomach, nausia, headache, dizziness and colic, without griping or discomfort. 25c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Held Secret Session.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 30.—Contrary to the usual custom, a meeting of the national convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, was held behind closed doors Monday. Several convention matters were disposed of. The speakers at the general meeting included Mrs. Lucy Thurman, of Michigan, whose topic was "Work Among the Negroes."

Atlanta Man Ends His Life.

Gulfport, Miss., Oct. 30.—The body of a man apparently 35 years of age, was found on the beach near the Beach hotel, about noon Sunday. The body was well dressed and a watch and purse undisturbed. There were no means of identification except the name "J. H. Connelly, Atlanta, Ga., on the coat lapel. The verdict of the coroner's jury was suicide by a pistol. Police Chief Childress wired the Atlanta chief of the finding of the body. The body was immediately interred.

Danger from the Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of coughs and colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Geo. Walls of Forest City, Me., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them. It prevents Pneumonia, cures lagrippe, gives wonderful relief in asthma and hay fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off consumption, coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottle free.

Public Is Warned.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 30.—On the eve of the anniversary of the publication of the imperial manifesto giving a constitution to Russia, Oct. 30, the prefect of police has caused the city to be placarded with proclamations recalling the late General Trepoff's famouse phrase, "Do not spare bullets," warning the public that in case of disorders, demonstrations or even the assembling of crowds, armed force will be used with all the vigor permissible under the rules "extraordinary security."

Makes Homely Women Pretty.

No woman no matter how regular her features may be can be called pretty if her complexion is bad. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and clears sallow blotched complexions by stimulating the liver and bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Remember the name Orino and refuse to accept any substitute. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Chorus Girl Commits Suicide.

New York, Oct. 30.—In a fit of despondency with her husband's love letters torn to bits and scattered around her, Hazel Cooper, a chorus girl in the "The Earl and the Girl" company, drank carbolic acid in her apartments in the hotel Hamilton in West Forty-fifth street and died at a hospital Monday. The girl is said to have been the wife of Ed Walsh, a jockey. She was about 20 years of age.

The Pandects of Justinian.

The pandects of Justinian, the most complete body of Roman laws ever collected, were supposed to be lost, but in 1137, when Amalfi was taken and plundered by the Pisans, a private soldier found a copy, which he sold to an officer for a few pence. The value of the discovery was soon apparent, and the precious volume was taken to Pisa and stored in the city library. When Pisa was stormed by the Florentines in 1415 the precious volume was captured and taken to Florence, where it was placed in the library of the Medici.

Don't Be Imposed Upon.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Needles.

Needles are all made by machinery. The piece of mechanism by which the needle is manufactured takes the rough steel wire, cuts it into proper lengths, files the point, flattens the head, pierces the eye, then sharpens the tiny instrument and gives it that polish familiar to the purchaser. There is also a machine by which needles are counted and placed in the papers in which they are sold, these being afterward folded by the same contrivance.

True Wealth.

A man's true wealth is the good he does in this world. When he dies men will ask what property he has left behind him, but angels will inquire, "What good deeds hast thou sent before thee?"—From the Arabic.

Bribeless.

To be content is to be happy, and Happiness is one of the three who cannot be bribed; the other two are Love and Death.—Papyrus.

A Card.

This is to certify that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Cures la grippe, cough, and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Contains no opiates. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

TIMBER PRESERVATION.

The Most Perfect Method Is Also the Most Expensive.

Telephone poles nearly always decay at or just below the ground line. The upper portion of the pole, permanently in the air, rapidly drying after rain, is practically always dry and is rarely found decayed. The butt of the pole, deeply buried in the ground, is in a permanently damp condition, but oxygen being excluded it is seldom badly affected. Close to the ground line the soil retains the moisture and keeps the wood constantly damp where it is exposed to the air and to the heat of the sun, which is just what its little vegetable enemies like, but if the albumen in the wood can be rendered unfit for food the wood tissues offer practically no support to fungi. Timber preservation amounts, then, to poisoning the food supply of the destructive agencies.

Preservation of timber is attempted in three ways—by seasoning, either natural or artificial; by outward mechanical means, such as charring in fire or the applications of antiseptics on the surface of the stick, and by impregnating the wood with antiseptics. Of these the last is by far the most important. The most perfect method—which is also the most expensive—is the injection of dead oil of coal tar into the whole fiber of the pole.—Hartford Times.

This joke is his birthday—and the longer Sam lives the older he gets—that's the greatest joke of the entire program.

Mr. L. A. Jernigan asked The Sun reporter to say nothing about it—that is the age of Mr. Burnett—but stated that he, with other relatives, had been invited down to the fifty-sixth anniversary, and that he was hungry and knew his family would be, and that everything was ready, he supposed, to "fill him up" with turkey, chicken, and everything else good to eat.

Which he did.

Walter S., J. M. and S. L. Turner of Micanopy were trading in the city yesterday. The latter brought another wagon-load of 2,000 oranges from his fine grove, which sold readily at good prices. He has managed to dispose of 6 000 oranges in the local markets within the past two weeks. The fruit is fine, and sells readily to both the merchant and consumer.

LABOR Contracts, just the thing for farmers and turpentine men, 50c per dozen, $2 for 50, or $3 per 100. Cash in hand with order. Address, THE SUN, Gainesville, Fla.
